Projects

Online Marketplace for Local Farmers (MONGO, EXPRESS, REACT, NODE JS, JS)

The project aims to create an online marketplace for local farmers to sell their produce directly to consumers. The platform will allow farmers to create their profiles, list their products, and manage their orders, while consumers can search for products, place orders, and provide feedback.

Out-Patient Management System (NODE JS, JS, MONGO, BOOTSTRAP, CSS)

The project should allow out-patients to book appointments with doctors in the hospital. Doctors' qualifications, years of experience, specialties, and availability should be made available online. Patients must upload their previous consultation documents, test reports, and present symptoms to book an appointment. Patients must provide details of any medication they are currently taking.

Achievements & Awards

- • Successfully completed three projects within tight deadlines, resulting in positive feedback from clients and stakeholders.
- • Maintained strong vendor relationships, resulting in a 15% decrease in procurement costs for the organization.
- • Certificate for completing 30 Hours of Volunteer work in Don Bosco NGO Okhla New Delhi.
- • 'B' Certificate in National Service Scheme
